

The Early Dance Consort specialises in early European court dance, bringing to life dances from Renaissance to 18th century & beyond.

Directed by Fiona Garlick & John Barnard, the Consort has delighted Australian audiences with costumed performances, appearing with music ensembles including the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra, Australian Chamber Orchestra, City Chamber Orchestra of Hong Kong, Ensemble of the Golden Age, Adelaide Baroque, The Musicke, Pastance, Renaissance Players, The Sydney Conservatorium of Music Early Music Ensemble, The Marais Project, Evergreen Ensemble., and Consort 8.

The Consort also presents demonstrations, lectures, & master-classes on aspects of early dance & related topics for arts & educational institutions. Presentations are based on wide research into surviving records for early court dance & music, & can include appropriate choreography & movement for period operas, ballets, plays & concert productions.

Evening Classes
in Court Dance
2025

North Sydney

Welcome to the delights of Early Dance! We invite you to join us & experience the physical world of the European courts - through dance. Thanks to surviving treatises & notation, we are able to revive & relive ballroom & stage dances from the Renaissance & Baroque eras. Far from being dusty and sober, this repertoire offers the pleasurable challenge of dancing to lovely music, while learning about the social, musical and aesthetic context of the dance.

Our evening classes cover a range of dances from a wealth of sources. Taking part is an enjoyable and informative experience for anyone with a passion for early music, period drama, social history and the European dance heritage.

Beginners' Classes focus on dances such as the Pavane, Galliard, Allemande & Branle from the European courts of the 16th century, & on English country dances from the 17th to 18th centuries.

During the year, students will be introduced to the noble baroque dance style from the court of Louis XIV of France. Epitomised by such dances as the Minuet, Gavotte and Sarabande, this laid the foundations for classical ballet technique.

No partner or previous experience required.

Classes begin with warm-up and gentle stretch, and the dances provide both physical and mental exercise ranging from gentle to moderately vigorous, in a relaxed and friendly environment.

Advanced Classes by invitation, for students with training in ballet or modern dance, or experience in early dance, including Italian Renaissance and French baroque.
